

1. Switch Year (F11)

This option can be used to switch to previous or future years.

All applications in Sprinter 2000 must be closed first before you switch years. The function key F11 can also be used to use this option.

Caution: This might take a while to open, since a database could be very large.